

SEWAGE PLANT BEING BUILT IN IRVINGTON

Construction of the Irvington Sanitary District's new sewage treatment plant is well under way and completion may be expected in January or February, according to Resident Engineer J. M. McKillen, in charge of construction.

Located three miles south of Irvington, the plant represents an investment by the sanitary district of approximately $70,000. It is part of a $200,000 program which also includes the sewerage of recently annexed Mission San Jose and extension of the Irvington collection system.

Approximately 30 men are engaged in the construction. Being built are a clarifier 64 feet long, 14 feet deep and 14 feet wide, and a digester which is cylindrical—20 feet high and 31 feet in diameter. The plant is located on eight acres of property owned by the district. Sanitary board members are: Leonard Freitas (chairman), R. J. Wright (secretary), Raymond Benbow, William Rose, and Dr. J. H. Durham.

SCOUTS WINDING UP NOV. 16 RALLY PLANS

Boy Scouts throughout Washington Township are busily practicing knot tying, fire building and other outdoor handcraft feats preparing for the 1948 Rally to be held next Tuesday night.

They're also distributing as many tickets to the rally as possible since a special pennant will be awarded to the troop having the largest number of parents, friends and guests attending the annual event.

Announcement has been made that pennants will be awarded for various rally events by Joe Viveiras from the Niles Electric Company; Joe Adams, Centerville Ford dealer; Walter Connolly's Appliance Store in Irvington; the Mercury Radio and Electric Shop in Decoto; Pat Luna at the Newark Hardware and Appliance Company; A. B. Leask Grocery, Niles; and Sears and Houston, Newark.

UNBEATEN DECOTO SKINS BRET HARTE

Undeclared in Washington Township for three years, the Decoto Elementary School football team whipped Bret Harte of Hayward Wednesday afternoon to the tune of 27-7.

Captained by Tony Martinez, all of the regulars and reserves played outstanding ball. Coach of the Decoto group is William Graves, seventh grade and physical education instructor.

The defeated Bret Harte team has thus far been champions of Eden Township.

Mrs. Cora Hayes of Centerville last week leased the soda fountain in Sid's Pharmacy next to the Center Theater, and will be managing it herself.

WORSE THAN THAT MISSOURI MULE

It's a pretty rough world, Pedro Cardona of Alvarado has decided. A man can't even bend over to fix his car without getting hurt.

Pedro was in the Chevron Station last Friday evening beside his parked auto taking a squint at its "innards" when he suddenly thought he had been bunted by an angry ram. But no—he had only been hit by a car driving through the station. Flying through the air, he connected with the wall of an adjacent building.

Taken to the Fairmont Hospital by the Dallas Paul ambulance service, Cardona wasn't seriously injured, but he's apt to be eating off the mantle for awhile.

HUGE SMOKESTACK RAISED AT MILL

Most spectacular construction job in the township in many a day took place at the American Forge plant between Niles and Decoto Tuesday when a giant 230-foot, 85-ton smokestack, 15 feet in diameter, was elevated into place.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon, William Ryan and his crew of 25 went to work on the hoisting job. By 4 o'clock they were finished. The huge steel stack, which has been in course of fabrication for months, fitted into place perfectly.

Only mishap occurred when one of the steady cranes took too strong a lift and buckled. But everything else held. Allowance had been made for three times the weight of the smokestack's 85 tons, from pin bolt to winch and cables. Work is now under way lining the steel with firebrick.

HIGH WINDS CAUSE TOWNSHIP DAMAGE

Rooftops went flying through the air, grounded planes were picked up like matchsticks and electric power poles were uprooted by the "big blow" last Sunday night and early Monday morning.

A large pole topped by electrical transformers fell across Driscoll Road around midnight Sunday. Shortly after it was blown down, E. C. Aldinion and Narcisio Nayre, workmen for Don Driscoll, smashed their car into the timber and equipment. Neither man was hurt, and Aldinion stated the crash happened when he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming auto.

At the Warm Springs Airport, off the San Jose highway, the manager really had his hands full. First the roof blew off of the airport office. As the men tried to tie several small planes and gliders down, sharp gusts of wind ripping through the area at near-hurricane velocity picked up the ships, tossing one over a nearby fence and scattering the others all over the field. The men trying to save the light aircraft estimated that the wind was blowing at a speed of from 70 to 75 miles per hour.

There were also scattered reports from all over the township of tree limbs down and windows broken by the gale.

SCOUT LEADERS TO MEET AT HAYWARD

Cub Scout leaders from throughout the Southern District will gather at Bret Harte school, Hayward, next Monday evening, Nov. 15, at 7:30, for their regular monthly round-table. Bob Matheson will be chairman. The meeting will feature the theme "Goodwill" and will develop ideas for December Cub Pack activities. Buelah Linnell will be responsible for the opening ceremony, Clarence Pelky for stunts, and Roy Cunningham for the closing ceremony. Edna Matheson will furnish door prizes and props, and Grace Wilcox is in charge of refreshments.

MEETING MONDAY

Officers of the Washington Township Y.M.I. will meet at the home of Edw. L. Rose, president, Monday evening. Plans will be made for activities during the remainder of the year.

LOCAL BOYS GO TO FUTURE FARMERS' NATIONAL MEETING

Johnny Coelho of Warm Springs and Frank Hermosa of Alviso, both members of the Future Farmers at Washington Union High School, are going to have the time of their lives starting this Sunday.

Coelho and Hermosa, Juniors at the high school, are going along with a group of California students on a special train to the National Convention of Future Farmers in Kansas City from Sunday through next Friday.

Frank Hermosa, president of the local group, is attending the conference as a prize for winning the chapter public speaking contest last spring, while John Coelho, club sentinel, was chosen from among the 34 members belonging to the Washington Union High chapter.

Jed Oxborrow, faculty advisor of the Centerville Future Farmers, says that the boys in the chapter have raised all of the money themselves to pay the expenses for John and Frank on their momentous trip to Kansas City this week.

LECTURES TO END; FORUM STARTS SOON

"Family Relations" will be the concluding subject discussed Monday evening by Dr. Edith Bryan in her 1948 lecture series at Washington Union High School under the adult education program.

It is generally agreed among the residents attending the series that a wealth of instructive information has been received from Dr. Bryan's viewpoints on marriage, adolescence, and the most effective approach to parent-vs.-children problems.

Warren Gravestock, director of the adult education classes at the high school, says that during the six Bryan lectures there has been an average attendance of 55 people.

Forthcoming on the schedule of events for township adults is a series of Public Forums which will commence shortly after the opening of the high school for the spring term.

At present plans include around six forum discussions to cover international, national, state and township problems. Prominent public figures who are authorities on the various topics will appear as speakers, followed by a general question-and-answer period.

Mr. Gravestock suggests that anyone having ideas for subjects to be included in the forum series can send or bring them in to the high school office before December 1.

LEADERS ATTEND ASILOMAR MEETING

Adult leaders of Girl Scouts from Arizona, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and California gathered from Tuesday to Thursday this week at Asilomar.

Mrs. Marie Vervais and Mrs. Rae Lamoreux, both actively engaged in Scouting in Niles, attended the classes of instruction for "Adult Scouts."

GIRLS, DON'T KISS ON YOUR FIRST DATE! BOYS HAVE 'NICKNAME' FOR YOU IF YOU DO

Girls, would you like to know what the boys call you if you let them kiss you on a first date?

You would? In that case we'll tell you, and we quote no less an authority than that elderly dynamo, Dr. Edith Bryan, who lectured last Monday evening on the subject, "Parents' approach to teenage problems."

Dr. Bryan, in her concise no-beating-about-the-bush manner of telling things, had this to say about the subject, "By putting the question frankly to a class of high school boys I received a frank reply: Girls who kiss on the first date are called 'common goods.'"

Thus was the kissing question disposed of. Dr. Bryan also went into the fine points of drinking, smoking, necking, and petting for teen-agers, and came up with some excellent advice, not only for parents, but

PENALIZED FOR LACK OF LICENSES

Four young men found out that it doesn't pay to go into business without the proper licenses to do so.

Luis Apodaca of Alvarado, Lorenzo C. Casteneda, Ramon Escarcega and Wilbert Silveria, all of Hayward, were fined $25 each in the Centerville Justice Court for operating public highway carriers without a carrier license from the Public Utilities Commission.

BIG GAME DINNER FOR ALUMNI HERE

"Come join the band" and "Hail to California" all of you U. C. and Stanford alumni at the big pre-game dinner and rally next Wednesday, Nov. 17, at the International Kitchen.

The annual affair is open to all alumni of the two universities, and their wives and husbands. Reservations may be made with Vernon Ellsworth in Niles.

The Alumni Associations of the two universities will supply the speakers and program.

NILES MAN HAS MINOR ACCIDENT

It's mighty unpleasant to find you and your car wedged between a tree and a telephone pole, but that's what happened to Joseph Silva of Niles in the wee small hours yesterday while driving to Newark.

Due to failure of the steering apparatus Silva lost control of his car, which veered off the highway and landed in a very tight squeeze. Picked up by the Dallas Paul ambulance service, he received only minor cuts and bruises which were treated at Fairmont Hospital.

BIG GAME HUNT ENDS IN HIS OWN BACK YARD

A big game hunting expedition for elk up to Yakima, Washington, for Michael Overacker of Mission San Jose was climaxed last weekend by the capture of a mountain lion. Not, however, at Yakima, but at his own sheep ranch in Mission San Jose!

Returning Saturday from a two weeks' hunt in the northern state with nothing to show for his trip, the young rancher came back to capture the big game prize, almost in his back yard.

The "cat" had left evidence of his visit to the ranch by leaving the partially eaten carcass of a pure-bred buck. Overacker immediately set traps for the creature, which scorned the traps for a day and went off to get further prey, a prize yearling ewe. The next morning, however, it went back to the buck, and thus was trapped.

By the time Overacker found the animal, it had struggled almost free of the trap, being held by only one toe. A quick pull of the trigger ended its life.

This is the third mountain lion shot on the Overacker ranch within a year, two by Overacker himself and the third by his brother, Howard Overacker. Because of lambing season coming up shortly, they feel that it is fortunate that the animal was trapped now, before it had a chance to prey on the lambs.

The bounty for a lion is $50, but the value of the buck and the ewe killed by the creature far exceeds that amount.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS TO HAVE DINNER

A pot-luck Thanksgiving dinner has been planned for the members of the Betsy Ross Parlor No. 238, N.D.G.W. of Centerville, on next Friday evening at Hensen Hall. Marie Williams has been appointed chairman of the supper arrangements.

At the regular meeting of the organization this week a report was given by Mamie Perry on the Native Daughters' traveling basket project. Parlor members voted to start a series of whist parties beginning January 7. The games will be conducted as a tournament under the direction of Edna Azevedo.

DINNER MEETING

Postmasters of Southern Alameda County will meet for dinner at Roethlin's Cafe in Irvington next Wednesday night. Manuel Joseph of the Irvington office will act as host.

STATE PLANS LOCAL LICENSE BUREAU

Letters were received by both the Niles and Centerville Chambers of Commerce this week assuring that facilities for securing drivers' licenses locally are planned by the Department of Motor Vehicles.

A. H. Henderson, director of the state department, stated that he is recommending in his next budget that funds be allocated for this purpose. However, the service would not be possible until July 1, 1949.

Both Chambers have urged repeatedly that local drivers' license examiners be available in the township at least one day a week.

NEWARK VISITOR INJURED IN CRASH

Walking by the roadside late Tuesday night on Thornton avenue between Centerville and Newark, Mrs. Petra Christine Rosenberg, 55, was struck by a car driven by David Freitas of Newark.

When questioned Freitas said that he did not see Mrs. Rosenberg walking near the center of the road, felt a dull thud and found that he had hit the woman with his left front fender.

Suffering from shock, multiple bruises and a severe compound fracture of the left foot, Mrs. Rosenberg was taken to Fairmont Hospital by the Dallas Paul ambulance service, and later transferred to Highland Hospital for further treatment.

The injured woman had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Bertelsen of Dairy avenue, Newark, after arriving from Canada several days ago.

Young Freitas was released by highway patrolmen when it was determined that the accident had been unavoidable on his part.

GOMES BOY DIES FROM INFECTION

Students of the Sophomore year at Washington Union High School were shocked Wednesday by the death of one of their classmates, Richard Alvin Gomes, 16, who has been ill for the past three weeks at Highland Hospital with blood poisoning.

The youngest child of Mrs. Helen Gomes of Irvington, the boy had been in a coma during the entire time of his hospitalization, but had reportedly been improving last week.

Born in Oakland, young Gomes attended the Irvington Grammar School and in his freshman year at Washington High had played Class "C" basketball. This year he went out for football, playing as a reserve left end on the 130 team.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by two brothers, Chris and Kenneth Gomes, and three sisters, Louise and Rita Gomes and Lorraine Stanley, all of Irvington. Other remaining relatives are his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ramsell; two aunts, Mrs. Ann Allender of Irvington and Mrs. Mary Ekstrom of Oakland; and three uncles, Gene Ramsell of Centerville, William Ramsell of Oakland, and Phillip Ramsell of Decoto.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday morning at 8:30 at the Berge Mortuary in Irvington, followed by mass at St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose. Interment will be at the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery in Hayward.

Six close friends and classmates of Alvin's will serve as honor guard and pall bearers at the funeral services.

LEGION AUXILIARY PREPARES GIFTS

Christmas gifts for patients at the Livermore Veterans Hospital were wrapped at the regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 195 in Memorial Hall, Niles, Wednesday evening.

It was announced by President Florence Graber that several members will aid in distribution of the presents next month.

Last week Mrs. Margaret Jones and Mrs. Stella Benbow assisted in the children's nursery at the Livermore Hospital.

CENTERVILLE C. C. SEEKS OPENING OF NEW STREET

"Centerville will either have to open some new streets or fold up the town." This remark, made by a member of the Centerville Chamber of Commerce at its regular meeting Wednesday, was accepted by the Chamber as its group opinion.

President Allan Walton was asked to re-establish the committee which last year worked on the project, failing to secure unanimous approval of property owners concerned for the opening of a new street parallel to Main street. The committee consists of Fred Rogers, Charles Wauhab and Manuel Lewis. A new member, Louis Cardoza, was also appointed.

The subject was brought up at the meeting by Cardoza, who remarked that rental homes are coming into constantly greater demand, and that unless a new street is opened, to allow for the town's growth, there can be little expectation of more homes for Centerville.

A committee consisting of Joe Adams and Ralph Goodwin was appointed by President Walton to contact business men of Centerville and work with other Chambers of Commerce in the township toward establishing uniform observance of holidays.

It was pointed out that on holidays such as Armistice Day some merchants closed their businesses, while others remain open, a situation which is confusing to the public.

IRVINGTON WILL CONSIDER ZONING

Decision to hold a public meeting on the proposed zoning of Irvington was reached Tuesday at the regular meeting of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

Arrangements are now being made to have County Planning Commission Consultant Ronald Campbell and Engineer John Thomas in attendance. These two men served as advisers on the zoning of Newark and Decoto, and have worked with the Niles zoning committee on the proposed zoning of that community. No date has as yet been set for the Irvington zoning meet.

On the zoning committee for the Irvington Chamber of Commerce are: Carl Christensen, A. E. Alameda, L. S. Williams, and R. J. Wright.

Taken to the San Jose Hospital by the Dallas Paul ambulance service, the child was in critical condition over the week-end, but is reported to be recovering now.

FLOOD FIGHTERS

How telephone people plan far ahead of emergencies to keep calls going through

1. When wild water breaks its bonds, telephone men get on the job fast to size up the damage and begin plotting their repairs. At the same time, if long distance circuits have been cut, your calls will already have been routed over other lines by the Traffic Control Bureau... often without your being aware of a delay.

2. Emergency materials like this are stored in special yards... set aside and reserved especially for disasters like floods and fires. They're assembled by fast-working crews and rushed by rail, truck or air to spots near the damaged area. They're then sent on by truck... and sometimes by boat... to the individual repair jobs.

3. The trouble's remedied... often while the water is still high. Some calls will be going through in a remarkably short time. For although problems like major floods and forest fires are infrequent, telephone people are always prepared to make teamwork match emergencies... to keep your telephone working well for you.

4. Around the clock, day in and day out, your telephone is ready to take your voice where you want it to go... quickly and dependably. And telephone men and women take pride in keeping it that way. Sometimes it takes an emergency to demonstrate the real value of a service so often taken for granted.

NEW FARM GROUP BEING ORGANIZED BY ADULT SCHOOL

Youthful agriculturists throughout Washington Township are going to have an opportunity to carry on their study of farming problems. A new organization, under the adult education program, is being formed at Washington Union High School to be known as "Young Farmers." Fellows from the age of 18 on are eligible for membership if they are actively engaged in farming and interested in continuing the program started in Future Farmer work during their school years.

Under the leadership of Jed Oxborrow, director of the agricultural department at Washington High, the new club will have an organizational meeting on Thursday evening, December 2, at the high school. At that time officers will be elected and a program outlined.

The "Young Farmers" are a state-wide group and have been established for the past 15 years. Local interest was aroused recently when several young men asked Oxborrow if there was any way of going ahead with recreational and educational meetings for farmers in this area.

It is planned that after the "Young Farmers" branch gets underway there will be classes and

ADULT CLASSES HIGHLY PRAISED

"I believe your adult program is meeting the needs of your community in splendid fashion." This was the praise given the Washington Union High School adult school by Spencer D. Benbow, administrative assistant of adult education for the Oakland school system who visited the night school last Wednesday evening accompanied by seven other Oakland adult school directors.

Warren Gravestock, director of the Washington High adult program, was host at a dinner at the International Kitchen preceding the tour of the township high school by the Oakland officials. A complete trip around the campus was made, with stops at the night school classes in session.

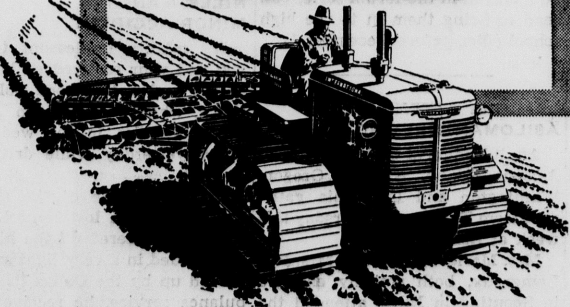

Mr. Benbow said at the end of the evening that "there is a community school spirit and atmosphere in your program that is completely lacking in larger districts."

events for the wives also, since home planning will be included in the subjects to be discussed and studied.

Mr. Oxborrow urges all farmers above 18 to attend the opening meeting at the high school agricultural department, and says that the new organization should provide a cooperative enterprise of great interest to the entire community.

HOW SAFE ARE YOUR SCHOOL CHILDREN?REGISTER SAFETY SURVEY IS CONTINUED

By ELEANOR TREWITT

Last week we started a Register reporter's view of the safety conditions at Washington Township Grammar Schools. The Junior Traffic Patrol of Irvington and the monitor system at Niles were reviewed in the first story. Safety precautions at the remaining six schools which were surveyed are discussed below.

One of the township's outstanding Junior Patrols is operating at the Centerville Elementary School this year, under the leadership of Principal T. P. Maloney. Sponsored by the Centerville Lions Club, the group has acquired trim white duck trousers with red T-shirts and patrol caps for their official uniform.

EXTRA DUTIES

With a full scale expansion program well under way directly behind the main building, Centerville has placed extra responsibility on the shoulders of its youthful safety officers by having them patrol the construction area to forestall any injuries to "sidewalk superintendents."

With a squad of 19 boys, the Centerville Patrol elected Dick Arington of the eighth grade as their captain this year, assisted by Russell Hayes as his lieutenant. Other duties of the boys include accompanying the various classes to religious instruction outside of the school grounds each Wednesday.

A serious accident at the crossing in front of the Decoto School back in 1935 brought about the formation of their Safety Patrol, according to L. W. Musick, principal.

With three gates to be watched, Decoto has a squad of 32 boys who operate in four-man shifts for a half-hour period five times each day. Two captains and two lieutenants are selected to rotate the morning and afternoon duties. This semester the captains are Richard Guerra and Fred Sanchez, with Joe Martinez and Chester Caldeira holding down the lieutenant posts.

Decoto Vice-Principal C. W. Jorgensen is working with the Safety Patrol this year.

A small school such as the one in the Alviso district doesn't find it practical or necessary to have a formal safety patrol. Since a crossing guard is on duty at the opening and closing of school,

James Nunes, new Alviso principal, decided that the only student safety measures needed for his 84 pupils was a monitor system similar to that used in Niles.

Twelve boys from the seventh and eighth grades at Alviso keep a watchful eye on the children around the school grounds, in the halls, and arriving or departing on the school buses. Plans are now being made for the boys to elect officers for their group.

CHAMBER SPONSORS

Eddie Valles captains the Junior Safety Patrol at the Newark Grammar School and has 16 boys working with him. The squad is sponsored by the Newark Chamber of Commerce, who have supplied them with orange patrol caps and Sam Brown belts.

The Newark group does no monitoring on the grounds, but stands guard at the highway and school crossings seven times during the day. Principal J. I. MacGregor says that in the near future his boys will have colored T-shirts styled after the Centerville patrol.

After consideration of student activities for the first two months of the fall semester at the Mission San Jose School, Principal N. E. Click determined to try something different from the Safety Patrol. With several stairways in the two-story building and a large playground area, he found the two greatest hazards to student safety were bicycles and running on the stairs.

UNUSUAL SYSTEM

The unique plan which evolved at Mission is a "traffic court" with a judge, district attorney and clerk elected by the student body. Safety offenders on the school grounds are given tickets by patrolmen and then appear in court for sentence.

Patrolmen and jurors in the Mission safety program are volunteers, but they must meet certain standards and be recommended by their teachers.

Serving as judge at the present time is Lawrence Garcia of the seventh grade. Stanley Cairo was elected district attorney, while Georgia Morrow was chosen for the clerk-of-the-court. Reno Bernardo, an eighth grader, is chief of the patrolmen.

Mr. Click says that the traffic court has worked out very well, and that students appearing for safety violations fully respect the judgment of the "judge" and his staff. He feels that this experiment in self-government is an excellent way for the entire school to study the functions of our judiciary system on a small scale.

GIRLS TAKE PART

In only one of the eight township schools do the girl students get an opportunity to participate in the Safety Patrol work. At the Alvarado Elementary School, L. H. Maffey, principal, has eight young ladies assisting the 23 boys in his safety group.

Alvarado is another school where safety duties are limited to yard, hall, lavatory and cafeteria patrol, since a traffic guard gives adequate protection at school crossings.

Under the sponsorship of the Alvarado Chamber of Commerce, this last group is captained by Antwine Rigmaiden, with the help of lieutenants Julio Moreno, Rodney Hendricks, Yoshio Kamachi, Tony Mata, and Masahara Hisaoka.

When the eight principals heard of The Register's survey on Junior Safety Patrols around Washington Township, they all requested that it should be pointed out that all of the students participating do so on a purely voluntary basis, in many cases sacrificing hours of playground and athletic activity. Each school superintendent felt the program was outstandingly successful and that patrol members show a splendid sense of duty and responsibility.

WHAT ARE REWARDS?

Why are the children at each school so eager to be on the various safety patrols and monitor squads? What reward or incentive is given them for their work?

In Centerville, Newark and Alvarado, where the groups are sponsored by civic organizations, an annual dinner party is given for the boys. At Alvarado, when a member of the Junior Safety Patrol graduates he receives a certificate for meritorious service and he gets to keep his patrol badge as a memento of his work.

Officers and patrolmen of the Mission San Jose traffic court receive a regular block "M" at graduation time, which compensates in part for their sacrifice of athletic activities.

All of the schools take their safety patrols to the college football games played in the bay area, and the boys look forward to these week-end outings with great anticipation.

Theater managers in the eight communities have special rates for safety patrol boys and girls, allowing them to attend one show a week at a very nominal cost.

When The Register survey of safety conditions at the various primary educational institutions in Washington Township was concluded, it was a fine feeling to know that our sons and daughters are learning to share the duties and responsibilities of living in a democracy—learning to safeguard the welfare of their fellow students.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVESUCCESSFUL RALLY

Seventy-four Girl Scouts had a wonderful day at the rally held last week at the Niles Scout Hut. Starting with an early morning flag raising ceremony, the day's events ended with punch and cookies provided by the leaders of the seven troops attending.

Word comes from Troop 2 of Niles that the girls have started to sell Christmas cards, and are making sewing baskets. Leaders of the group are Mrs. Henrietta Teeter and Mrs. F. D. Andrade.

NELSON EDDY WILL DRAW BIG CROWD

Nelson Eddy's song recital in the auditorium, San Jose, on next Thursday, November 18, is drawing a record crowd, from all accounts. The spectacular popularity of the American baritone remains undiminished since he first became world famous in "Naughty Marietta."

Eddy's program will include songs by Scarlatti, Handel, Mozart, Rachmaninoff, Dargomizsky, Beethoven, Brahms, Mittler, Wolf, and a light American group. Song "hits" from the Eddy screen and radio favorites will be reserved for encores. Theodore Paxson, Eddy's friend and accompanist for many years, will be at the piano and play a group of solos as well.

Following Nelson Eddy in the San Jose auditorium, will appear the dazzling violinist, Tosny Spivakovsky, whose playing the San Francisco Chronicle last year declared "the finest in a generation," and the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo on December 4.

Tickets for all events are on sale at the Denny-Watrous box office, San Jose auditorium.

YOUTH RECOVERING FROM POLIO ATTACK

Home and on the road to recovery is Robert Mendes, a Junior student at Washington Union High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Mendes of Centerville.

A player on the lightweight high school football team, young Mendes was stricken with infantile paralysis last week. He was taken to Highland Hospital for treatment and returned to the care of his family on Wednesday.

FELLOWSHIP RALLY VERY SUCCESSFUL

Niles Pilgrim Fellowship played host last Saturday to 90 members of the East Bay Congregational Fellowship who attended a rally and social at the Niles Church.

Under the leadership of Rev. Donald Kirkbride and Don Maynard, Fellowship president, Ellsworth Kerr, Ralph Juhl, Mary Lynn Lamoreux, Bob Brahmst, Alice Hale, Alice Gerrard, Rosella Lorenzon, Joan Halliwell, Gordon Kibby, Edward Wright, and Barbara James comprised the Niles committee in charge of arranging the program.

Following a worship period conducted by Barbara James and Edward Wright, Dr. Ralph Hislop from the Pacific School of Religion spoke on "Our Christian World Mission."

During the five panel discussions later in the afternoon, there was a great deal of interest shown by the young people in entering missionary service or the ministry. They felt that the churches present such a drab picture of the life led by church people that college students are not encouraged to enter either field.

After the box supper, the rally broke up into two groups for folk dancing.

NAVY CAN'T ACCEPT MEN AFTER INDUCTION CALL

The Navy Recruiting Station in the San Leandro City Hall announced this week that the Navy will not accept men for enlistment who have received a notification to report for pre-induction examination, as to do so would be a direct violation of the law.

All men of draft age who desire to enlist in the regular Navy are required to have their enlistment completed prior to receipt of any pre-induction call.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the Navy Recruiter when he is at the Niles post office at 10:30 a.m. on Wednesdays.

P.T.A. HEARS ABOUT SPASTICS SCHOOL

An interesting discussion of the school being established in Alameda County for spastic children was given by Mrs. John Hayes at the meeting Wednesday of the newly formed Decoto P.T.A.

Mrs. Hayes is Exceptional Child chairman for the Phoebe Hearst Council, P.T.A., of Southern Alameda County.

Two short movies were also included on the program. The first on "Personal Hygiene" will be shown to the Decoto school children soon, and the second was titled "Family Teamwork."

During the business session members voted to have a food sale in the next few weeks for the benefit of the school for spastics. Mrs. Frank Margarito and Mrs. Virgil Simerley were appointed to make arrangements for the sale.

Mrs. Elvie Cordova presided at the meeting, and refreshments were served at the conclusion of the afternoon.

I received a very interesting letter this week from Mrs. Jean van Ophem, former Niles resident now living in Washington, D. C. The niece of Mrs. Laura Whipple, Mrs. van Ophem is well known here, having lived in Niles for some time.

She enclosed some clippings concerning an art exhibit which was held at the National Gallery in Washington and which is one she thinks all of us here should see when the exhibit comes to San Francisco. She writes, "I took the liberty of sending you some clippings about the art exhibit which should be in San Francisco soon. Maybe it's already down there; they were uncertain about dates. It was wonderful! Don't fail to see it. I should think there would be loads of people in Niles who would enjoy it."

The exhibit about which she is so enthusiastic is that of paintings from the Berlin museums. Of the 202 paintings, mainly from the Kaiser Friedrich Museum in Berlin, which were brought to the United States in 1945 for safekeeping, 52 are being prepared for immediate shipment back to Germany, and the remainder will begin the exhibition tour which will include museums in several of the largest U. S. cities, San Francisco and Los Angeles among them.

The exhibit in San Francisco will be held at the De Young museum. If any of you art enthusiasts want more information, I have reams of material here on the paintings, which I will be glad to share with you. And many thanks, Fay van Ophem, for taking time out to think about us here in Niles, in the middle of all of your Community Chest activity in Washington!

WARBLING

I answered the phone the other evening to hear a pleasant voice on the other end of the wire saying, "This is the telephone company, madam. We are testing. Will you please stand five feet away from the phone and whistle?"

Always willing to oblige, I did as I was asked, emitting a long tremulous whistle. When I returned to the phone the pleasant voice said, "Thank you, madam. We will send you your bird seed in the morning."

I'm only telling you so that you, too, won't make a fool out of yourself, if the occasion should ever arise.

NOT JUST THE SIZE
At last Lew Musick, principal of the Decoto Grammar School, has whipped a situation that has been troubling him for years. Every time the Decoto school football team has defeated an opponent, the opponents have always come back with, "Yeah, but look at the size of the guys on your team!"

This week the Decoto team defeated the Hayward team and lo! and behold, the Hayward contingent had this unusual remark to

'OKLAHOMA MIXER' FAVORITE OF CLUB DANCERS

A party of teen-agers jitterbugging could not have had more fun than did a group of Country Club members last Saturday night doing the "swing your partners" and the "dos-a-dos" at the club dance given at the Irvington school auditorium.

Though not of the teen-age group, the middle-agers and the pre-middle-agers had just as much pep. They carried on at a strenuous pace from 8 to midnight, with occasional intermissions for a draught of punch, and a nibble of homemade cookies, prepared by the Arts Appreciation Section and the folk-dancing section.

Serving as master of ceremonies for the occasion was Frank Katzer, and acting as directress for the dances was Mrs. Frances Mara.

Those who didn't know the first thing about folk or country dances soon caught on, and before the evening was over about a hundred dancers were doing "The Oklahoma Mixer" as though they had been doing it for years.

All of the participants seemed to agree on one thing: the Country Club should promote more dances!

BREAKFAST GIVEN

Forty children receiving communion last Sunday morning at St. Joseph's Church in Mission San Jose were honored at a breakfast at the Rosarian Hall following 8 o'clock mass.

The breakfast was given by the past presidents of St. Jude's Y.L.I. of Irvington, and was arranged by Mesdames Ann Rose, Mae Avila, Ann Perry, Beatrice Enos and Irene Harvey.

make, "You just had a better team than we did."

Lew feels that the remark was worth waiting for all these years.

Say you saw it in The Register.

At Bridge Club

The news of her daughter, Phyllis' engagement to Mr. Lincoln D'Amario was broken to the members of her bridge club this week by Mrs. Wayne Day in a very novel and interesting fashion. The pictures of the engaged pair were framed in a heart-shaped arrangement of flowers, which immediately caught the eyes of the surprised guests. Those present at Mrs. Day's home were Mesdames Evelyn Joseph, Marian Zwissig, Bettee Brown, Lucy Day, Anne Rose, and Tillie Enos.

'OUR LADY OF FATIMA' TO BE DISCUSSED AT NEXT MEETING OF DECOTO GROUP

By ETHEL AVILLA

"From the Top of the Stairs," by Gretchen Finletter, was reviewed by the Decoto Discussion Group Wednesday, Nov. 3, at the home of Mrs. Bernie Joseph. Mrs. Florence Wallace led the discussion. Mrs. Finletter wrote this book from her memories as a little girl when she and her three sisters, all daughters of Walter Damrosch, viewed life as they knew and loved it from their vantage point at the top of the stairs. Many rehearsals with famed musicians took place in their home as well as countless parties and dinners for celebrities.

She was fascinated by the gay goings-on in her remarkable family and has jotted down an interesting if not too consistent account of it.

The next meeting will be in keeping with the holiday spirit for Mrs. Edward Mara has chosen for discussion at that time the much read and much talked about book, "Our Lady of Fatima," by William Walsh. Mrs. Grant Wiswell, who has recently moved to Santa Clara, will be hostess to the group in her new home in that city.

A dinner for 40 friends and relatives was given shortly before his departure at their home on the San Jose highway.

TOWNSHIP OUT FOR FIRST CONCERT; PIANIST GIVES BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE

Washington Township turned out en masse last Wednesday evening to expose itself to some really good music.

Jorge Bolet, pianist, who played the first concert in the Washington Township Community Concert series at Washington High, didn't disappoint his eager audience. He gave them music, beautiful music, and the audience went home with a feeling of gratification and pride. Away from the cultural centers, we nevertheless had one of the world's great artists right in our own back yard, and the audience was grateful and appreciative of this opportunity of hearing the best.

Though not showing the brilliance and fire of some of his contemporaries, Mr. Bolet nevertheless gave a most satisfactory performance. What he lacked in warmth he made up in delicacy of execution.

As is customary in an audience of non-professionals, the familiar numbers were the favorite ones. The popular Chopin "Ballade in G Minor" was roundly applauded as was the Mendelssohn "Rondo capriccioso."

Perhaps some in the audience were disappointed that the pianist failed to play some of the more spectacular favorites, but it must be remembered that a Liszt rhapsody is not needed to prove a pianist's mastery of his instrument. Bolet showed this in his rendition of the Debussy preludes—delicate as gossamer and leaving an atmosphere of elusiveness and mystery.

The consensus of those who attended was: "He was wonderful!" "Imagine being able to hear such a performance right here in our own high school auditorium," and "Oh, I wish my husband (or my friend, or my sister) had heard this."

Those who served as ushers for the performance were Joan Halliwell, Barbara James, Manuel Silva and George Silva, students at the high school.

Miss Dorothy Czerny, art instructor at the high school, supervised the decorations of the stage, and Salvadore Guerrero, a student, had charge of the lighting.

For those who hold Community Concert memberships it might be well to note here that Igor Gorin is singing in Alameda on November 18, and in Walnut Creek on November 19 a well-known ballet troop is appearing.

MISS PHYLLIS DAY ANNOUNCES HER ENGAGEMENT TO EASTERN MAN

A family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Day last Friday was chosen by Miss Phyllis Day, their daughter, as the time for announcing her engagement to Mr. Lincoln F. D'Amario, formerly of Springfield Massachusetts, and now of Oakland.

The announcement came as a surprise to the more than 20 friends and relatives, some of whom had come from as far as Hanford for what they thought was just a get-together for the family.

A graduate of Washington High, the bride-elect is also a graduate of Heald's Business College and is presently employed as a secretary at the Owens-Illinois Glass Company in Oakland.

Mr. D'Amario, son of Mr. T. D'Amario of Springfield, is a veteran of the late war, having served for three and a half years. He is employed with the Peerless Stages.

Tentative plans call for a February wedding.

Week-End Guests

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Smith of San Jose were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Cull at their home on Jay street, Sunday. The four of them motored to Vallejo to visit Sgt. and Mrs. W. D. Wylie of the Army Air Corps, Hamilton Field. Mrs. Wylie is the daughter of the Smiths, and a member of the Niles Rebekah Lodge.

See '49ers

"It was a beautiful day for the game"—that was the general consensus of opinion among Mr. and Mrs. Norbert George and Frank George of Centerville, and Ernest Machado of Alvarado after attending the colorful scramble between the '49ers and the Chicago Rockets in San Francisco last week-end.

GOLFERS ENTER NATIVE SONS MEET

Eagle-eyed golf experts from the Washington Township Native Sons Parlor No. 16 set forth to give their best efforts in the Native Sons Golf Tournament which started Thursday at the Hillview Golf course in San Jose.

Eighteen holes of medal play were scheduled yesterday and the final 18 will be played on Sunday. Heavy favorite to win from the township area is Vernon Rose of Centerville, who does most of his star-caliber playing at the La Rinconada course in Los Gatos. Other local representatives to the tournament are Allen G. Norris, who usually plays at Sequoia in Oakland; Louie Hovey, Al Silveria, Louis Cardoza, Dick Valencia, Leeland Telles and Jack Stevenson, who all play at Hillview.

There'll be extra interest in a "married men vs. single men" event. Entered from the township parlor are Hovey and Silveria (bachelors) against Rose and Norris. It seems that in all athletic events lately the carefree lads have roundly whipped the home-bound fellows around these parts!

WASHINGTON STARS TO PLAY DALY CITY

The Washington Stars alumni football team will play the Daly City Athletic Club on Sunday afternoon at the high school field in Centerville. Kick-off time will be at 2:15 o'clock.

3,000 SPORTSMEN AT NILES SHOOT

More than 3000 Southern Alameda County sportsmen turned out at the Niles Sportsmen's Club turkey shoot last Sunday, according to President Ernie Frick of the local club.

Sixty-three turkeys were won by skillful sportsmen, who competed at trap-shooting, long-range rifle shooting, and with the .22 rifle.

So successful was the event that another shoot will be planned for December 19, President Frick states.

Chairman of last Sunday's event was Clarence Musgrove.

He was assisted by: Richard Davis, Jim Fitzhugh, Lorin Mohn, Joe Dutra, Joe Pine, Johnny Andrews, Glen Mohn, Vernon Sinn, Curt Pyle, Angelo Maringo, Joe Rose, Chris Botelho, Clarence Pine, Bill Chivers, LeRoy Gomez, Harry Davis, George Bonde Jr., and Jim Damas.

NILES MERCHANTS BEAT HAYWARD

The Niles Merchants baseball club last Sunday beat the Hayward Carpenters on the Centerville diamond by a score of 9 to 4. The local team played behind the pitching of Joe Peters, who allowed only 7 hits. Frank Lewis caught.

Tommy Pugmire was best hitter of the day, getting 2 hits for 2 times at bat.

Say you saw it in The Register.

IRVINGTON TAKES MARLO 21 TO 3

The Irvington Merchants baseball team took the lead in the first inning of a game against Decoto's Marlo Packers last Sunday at Irvington, and from that point on there was no doubt of the outcome.

Irvington won 21 to 3, scoring in every inning except the third and fourth, and tallying nine runs in the eighth.

Pitcher Dutra of Irvington struck out 15 men, while allowing 7 walks. Decoto used T. Sanchez, V. Vargas, and G. Marcus in the box, but couldn't stop the Irvington hitters.

Shortstop Ralph Chapman turned in a home run.

Huskies Come from Behind To Beat Mt. View 32-12

By LLOYD AUCHARD

The Washington Huskies last Friday rolled over a strong Mountain View eleven in the second half to win 32 to 12. The Huskies moved into undisputed second place, when the Fremont Indians, who last week were tied with the local team, dropped their all-important encounter with Santa Clara to the tune of 40-6.

This leaves Washington the last real threat to the powerful and defeated Santa Clara juggernaut.

Tonight the Huskies travel to the mission city to make their bid at stopping the near-perfect Panther passing and running attack, which so far has spelled defeat to opposing teams of the S.C.V.A.L.

SANTA CLARA STRONG

Santa Clara boasts a hard-charging defensive line, two good ends, followed by the fastest backfield in the league. As if their speed was not enough, the backfield sports two of the best passers in the league in Wentworth and Freitas, matched against Washington's so far not too effective passing by Lewis and Sankene.

Under the deciding hand of two-year letterman and guard, Captain Jim Herring, the Huskies came back in the second half to run rough-shod over stubborn Mountain View. Again, as was the case in the Los Gatos game, Washington had been scored upon before they fully realized just how dangerous the Eagles were.

30-YARD PASS

They climaxed a 63-yard drive from their opening kick-off by scoring of a 30-yard pass from Gonsales to End Coppel in the end zone. The conversion attempt was blocked to give the Huskies the first break of the evening.

Immediately Washington came back on a drive, sparked by Durazo, who scored going off-tackle for 11 yards on the first play of the second quarter. Day's attempted conversion was wide, leaving the score tied, 6-6.

Highlight of the evening for Mountain View came a few plays later. Mountain View was forced to punt; then, after a series of downs Sankene did the same. He got off a beautiful, spiraling, high 50-yard boot. It was taken by Gonsales, Mountain View's back, on his own 20.

80-YARD RUN

Fumbling, then picking the "pet" up, he took off behind good interference, to streak 80 yards to their second tally and to once again give the Eagles the lead. The conversion attempt was wide.

So remained the score until Washington began a sustained 74-yard drive to the Eagles' 15, with less than a minute left in the first. Mel Lewis connected with Alex Morris deep in the end zone, to once again tie up the ball game. Sankene's attempt for the extra point was wide to end the half.

HUSKIES COME BACK

Washington dominated the second half. Scoring the only touchdown in the third quarter when Sankene went off-tackle 10 yards to score. His try for the extra point was wide.

Nearest thing to a goal-line stand of the evening came on the last play of the third quarter when Mountain View lost the ball on downs on the Huskie 16-yard line. Taking over on their own 16, Washington marched to the 50, where Sankene on a beautiful end sweep went the Eagles' length of the field to a touchdown only to have it nullified by a clipping penalty.

MARCH AGAIN

Once again the Huskies were on the march, using for the second time this season their new formation. Last week it was tried and found to be ineffective against San Jose Tech, but it seemed to be just the thing against Mountain View. The change of pace seemed to break the Eagles' back. With the switch in formation came the switching of 225-pound Bernie Day from guard to fullback, to replace Mel Lewis, who injured his shoulder.

Alternating the carriers, first Sankene, then Day, over and over down the field they marched to the 6, where Sankene carried it over, going off-tackle to score his second touchdown of the evening. Day then ran the conversion over on a line plunge to make the score Washington 25, Mountain View 12.

INTERCEPT PASS

The final tally was made with but two minutes left in the game. Left End Alex Morris intercepted an Eagle pass on his own 20. Straight-arming one man to race 80 yards to a touchdown, evening up with Gonsales for his 80-yard punt run-back in the first half. Day kicked the extra point, making the final score 32-12.

The Huskies could probably beat Santa Clara if they were to play the way they did last week in the second quarter, but their pass defense will need great improvement if they expect to stop the Panthers' passing attack tonight.

Outstanding player, especially on offense, was Joe Sankene. He averaged 6 yards per carry on 21 carries from scrimmage, Durazo and Day each averaged 8 yards per carry, on 9 and 8 carries. Kiou, Lizardo, Herring, Orozco, and Morris did good jobs on defense. Lewis also did a good job on offense, until injured, carrying the ball 10 times, averaging 5 yards per carry.

PUPPIES LOSE PRELIMINARY

The Washington Puppies lost for the second time this season in six starts to a strong Mountain View lightweight eleven, 12-0, in the preliminary game. Lanoa Moga captained the Pups.

They played without the services of their passing first-string quarterback, Mendes, out for the rest of the season with a serious illness.

Also out for the remainder of the season is Right End Orbie Robertson, with a dislocated shoulder.

The Puppies' passing attack just couldn't seem to get rolling enough to compete with Mountain View. The Eagles scored in the second quarter on a line plunge, and in the fourth quarter when they recovered a Washington fumble on the 5-yard line.

The 130's also journey to Townsend Field, Santa Clara, tonight, playing another of the tougher teams in the limited exponent league.

'BUZZ-BOYS' WILL CHANGE SCHEDULE

The "Buzz-Boys," Niles model club, will meet hereafter on the second and fourth Fridays of each week, according to advisers Frank Lewis and Louis Mayer.

The model club meets in the Scout quonset on the Niles school grounds. Mr. Lewis asks all young men and boys interested in joining the club to contact Jim Fitzhugh at the Frick Sport Shop.

One of nation's heaviest freight loads for
P. G. and E. power project

So heavy, it took a truck and trailer with 74 wheels to haul it...so gigantic, only three railroad flatcars in the entire nation were strong enough to carry it—that's the story of a new P. G. and E. generator armature which soon will be helping turn out 149,000 electrical horsepower for Northern and Central California. One of the biggest ever built, this armature weighs 356,000 pounds (178 tons) and is 24 feet long, 12½ feet high. You see it here on the last leg of a 3,000-mile journey from the East.

Its destination was P. G. and E.'s Station "P" at Hunters Point in San Francisco, now being expanded to a capacity of 360,000 horsepower as just part of America's biggest power building program.

Due on the line within the next few weeks, the new generators at Station "P" will bring our total additional power since V-J Day to more than half a million horsepower. And still more is on the way!

For the record

Since wartime controls were lifted P. G. and E. has already spent more than $300,000,000 building new power...

...to rush facilities that will add nearly 2 million horsepower to California...

...with a program that is creating more than 7,000 new jobs here.

Work never stops on our power-building program

SEWING CLASSES DEVELOP PROJECTS

Nephews, nieces, brothers and sisters of the 80 girls in Miss Audrey Carmody's sewing classes at Washington Union High School are very lucky little boys and girls these days.

"Sewing for Others" has been one of the class projects this semester under the requirements laid down by the State Department of Home Economics. The girls have learned to make children's play clothes and baby garments, which have then been distributed among their own families or those of friends.

Miss Carmody's classes are now planning to make draperies for the Counseling Room of the high school, and then will assist in costuming the Senior play.

HIGH CHATTER

By MARGARET COLE

Football season is nearly over! Alas! Anyway that's the way we (me, myself and I) feel about it. It's been so exciting and the climax is almost upon us. The Huskies, now in second place in the S.C.V.A.L., will, tonight, challenge the formidable Santa Clara varsity which, at present, holds top honors. The Senior Night affair on Tuesday night must have been fun in spite of Duffie's disgust over having to play what he called "Ring Around the Rosy." On investigating further we discovered that it was folk dancing to which he referred and actually most of the kids enjoyed it immensely. Jack Gaunt volunteers the information that Jimmy Herring won the three-legged race all by himself; no partner. Nice trick, kid, if you can make it stick! Astonishing style and form were displayed by Coach Taylor and Joan Halliwell who were partners in the race. Joan and Clarabelle Silva gave a helping hand (or, as some unkind person said, "furnished the comic relief") to the Senior Yell leaders, but so far as we know, they haven't been encouraged to give further assistance. Wish we could have seen the javelin-throwing display put on by some of the mighty muscle-men. They used straws. Then, of course, there were ping-pong and basket-ball games. The advisors were there, too, among them Mr. Wolfe who brought his wife. At least they arrived together, but Mrs. Wolfe says that was the last she saw of him all evening.

Thanks, Lorraine Brown, for the information on the Centerville Catholic Youth Center. The group is open to anyone, Catholic or not. If you would like to join, get in touch with one of the officers, Lorraine Brown, Ray Bettencourt, Elva Mae Rose or Cookie Senn, who is the group's impressive sergeant-at-arms. They will have a dance tomorrow, Saturday, at the Parish Hall.

In spite of the many things that must be happening all the time in W.U.H.S., nobody ever tells me anything but I'll let you in on what I've seen this past week:

Mary Ann McIvor in sixth period Latin cleaning her white bucks with the board eraser.

Orbie Robertson thoroughly enjoying his disability and reading light literature in Geometry.

Bernie Day, sobbing to himself: His nail polish is chipping.

Junior and Sophomore advisors and class officers all puzzled by the notice on the bulletin that these classes were to have a joint meeting. Purpose unknown, so curiosity got the best of everybody and the meeting was well attended.

Alma Clark, very reassuringly telling a certain person (?) not to shy away from her house just because her father is a good shot.

Bob Lizardo trying desperately to play hockey. Pardon me, that isn't quite what I meant! He was trying to hit the ball.

Jimmy Herring twirling a hockey stick and after his performance everyone simply had to take lessons from him. Line forms to the right.

Mrs. Hartsog's second period English class got a laugh from the lesson on the board. Among the sentences listed was "Leave every hope behind when you enter here!" How true!

Here's new FRYER ARITHMETIC

2 lbs. 2 ozs. = 3 lbs.

Here's why one Fryer sells for 59¢ per pound and the other at 79¢ per pound, yet you save money by buying the one for 79¢ per pound.

A chicken that has head and feet on and entrails in and weighs 3 pounds with but the feathers removed, is known as a "New York Dressed" Fryer. The same chicken when completely dressed and drawn weighs 2 pounds and 2 ounces, a loss of 14 ounces for the inedible parts. This is known as "Fresh Killed, Dressed and Drawn" Fryer chicken and is pan-ready.

The rest is simple mathematics. The 3 pound New York Dressed Fryer at 59¢ per pound will cost you $1.77. The 2 pound 2 ounce Fresh Killed, Dressed and Drawn Fryer at 79¢ per pound costs you $1.58... a saving of money plus these other conveniences:

NO FUSS • NO MUSS
NO WASTE • NO WORRY

ED WYNN TO PLAY AT CURRAN THEATER

Paul Small's Battalion of Buffoons, headed by Ed Wynn, "The Perfect Fool," Phil Baker and Allan Jones, and supported by Pat Rooney, Betty Reilly, Sid Silvers, Dick and Doty Remy, The Hermans Williams Trio and Marion Harris, Jr., bunched into the Curran Theater, Sunday Night, November 7, for a limited engagement in a new variety revue, which producer Small is pleased to call "Ed Wynn's Laugh Carnival."

Ed Wynn, the world renowned "Fire Chief," is known to three generations of American theatergoers as a master clown, having appeared in musical show from "Ziegfeld Follies of 1914" to "Big Time," another Paul Small hit in 1943, also in motion pictures, and as a pioneer of radio, both as star performer and station owner.

Phil Baker and his accordion are known to millions of stage, screen and radio devotees, and handsome Allan Jones, of both the cinema and air-waves, intrigues you with his songs. Pat Rooney, who is still considered by the experts to be the best dancer on the stage, continues with "She's the Daughter of Rosie O'Grady."

There will be seven evening performances each week, starting Sunday, and matinees on Saturday and Sunday, after the opening.

NILES STUDENTS SEE DENTAL SHOW

A magic show on dental hygiene was presented to the student body of Niles Grammar School Thursday by Maurice Lenser from the Good Teeth Council for Children in Chicago.

The program was put on in conjunction with the dental health program authorized by Superintendent Vaughn D. Seidel for Alameda County schools. Mr. Lenser was obtained by Mrs. March Fong of the University of California Dental Clinic.

Mrs. Fong will come to the Niles school on Nov. 16, 23 and 30, for examination of the teeth of kindergarten and first grade pupils.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

For nearly two centuries, America has used and developed a "secret weapon"—the machine—and has made this nation the supreme producing area of the globe. Of course, the machine hasn't belonged to us alone; its utilization has been open to the entire world. But it remained for this country to adapt and perfect the machine and put it to work improving the lot of our people on a planned and purposeful scale approached by no other community of people on earth. In that sense, the machine has been, and still is, our "secret weapon."

Man's mastery of the machine, of course, has not been unattended by economic dislocation and social upheaval, here as elsewhere. But most of these by-products of the machine age have either been adjusted or are still in the process of adjustment. The fact that stands forth is that today, without the machine, the world would be in the Middle Ages of development, and civilization as we know it would be impossible.

A recent news item, based on statistics gathered by the Federal Government, showed that American business will spend $4.6 billion for building and equipping new plants between now and October 1. The same report revealed that another $100 million is being devoted to the improvement and equipment of plants already in production. The figures cover all types of business except agriculture, and they include $500 million to be spent by unincorporated business—by little businesses.

What significance do these figures hold for the man on the street—the man who works for a living? In 1890, when only a few machines were at work in the United States, 18,000,000 persons were gainfully employed—29 per cent of the total population. Today more than 60,000,000 are gainfully employed—or 43 per cent of the total population—principally because machines created jobs, as well as wealth and leisure.

The billions that are being poured into new plants represent, in part, profits of going concerns and, in part, money borrowed from investors. Economists report that before any man can go to work in the average American industry today, someone must put up $6500 in cash to provide the machines, tools, and plant facilities that man will use. On the railroads, there is an investment of about $20,000 for tracks, cars, engines, shops, stations, and plant facilities of all sorts for each railroad worker.

A Department of Commerce study shows that in the first six months of last year, industry needed $11,000,000,000 to meet the higher cost of inventories and replacement of tools. But all the funds set aside for that purpose, plus all the profits industry was able to retain, amounted to $7,500,000,000. The other $3,500,000,000 had to be borrowed.

Profits, then, were not sufficient to buy all the new machines, erect the new plants, and replace the worn out facilities that must be replaced if America's millions are to be kept gainfully employed.

As to the profits retained by industry or paid to investors by industry in general, government reports show that only 3.1 per cent of the total national income went to stockholders last year. In only three of the past 18 years did investors receive a smaller share of the total national income.

In this connection, large investors are regularly presenting operational facts and figures to newspaper readers through advertisements, in line with a public information policy now widely accepted by business leaders. A national steel corporation recently advertised that during 1947 it had paid out approximately $220,000,000 in wages, payrolls, and salaries to its 65,000 employees. For the same year, dividends paid to its 60,000 stockholders totaled $13,000,000, for every dollar that went to the stockholders of this company, the workers got $17.

The advertisement reporting these figures observed that without the stockholders and the money they invested, there would have been no company and no jobs. Invested funds purchased the machines that produced the steel that provided the jobs for the 65,000 workers.

Who are the nation's investors? Their number includes America's 50,000,000 savings bank depositors and the owners of 147,000,000 life insurance policies, who, together, have created a $200,000,000,000 reserve of funds—funds that help buy the new machines industry needs, through the reinvestment
